Section - A

(Reading) Marks : 24

I. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow :

Most of the girls belonging to poor families do not go to schools in rural areas. When asked, their parents would say that they want their daughters to be educated. They stay at home because their parents believe that the kind of education is not appropriate for their daughters, or because they feel the risks are too great. Those risks are real. Girls are sexually harassed sometimes by their fellow students or teachers or by strangers as they walk down to school. These pressures are central to low enrolment and retention of girls. Poverty also plays its part. If their clothes are torn, girls from poor families will stay at home. In such cases they are forced by the demands of modesty and propriety.

- II. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow :

Cable TV has come to stay. It has got a 'corner' in most urban homes today. For some, it is a symbol of social status, for others, a necessity for keeping in tune with the times. Parents have realised that the cable has become a power in itself. For although it is slowly wearing off the charm still remains So it is no longer a craze, but it is now a natural thing.

The effect of Cable TV on children is too strong to be ignored. Children can be heard discussing an 'extra channel' with school friends, who see TV at home. Films, star plus serials and the latest hot numbers of music TV are discussed among children. They are getting more and more 'star' struck.

Cable TV brings a new world of sheer entertainment and awareness of a new culture to our homes. It has exposed the young to a foreign culture also. More and more information, constant viewing of an unknown culture and access to adult shows are powerful problems. The academic routine, absence of sports, reading and other creative hobbies are disturbed. The price is thus heavy to be paid for viewing cable TV.
